

It's a short trip to the AISES

NATIONAL CONFERENCE

OCTOBER 3 - 5, 2024 | SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS

"It's a good day to be Indigenous!"

Attendees consistently comment that AISES conferences are different from others. Explore how resilience in STEM disciplines serves as a catalyst for empowerment and growth within Indigenous communities. Witness doors opening for you in STEM careers and education, as well as experiencing culture, elders, and a sense of being part of something bigger. AISES is one big family!
